The things Im going to say happen in a two year period, I would like to start out with the first symptoms of my schizophrenia, one day I was in a room lying down when I started hearing voices I turned the tv down and I started to hear people speaking saying I was a fag, and I liked kids, at that time I was thinking maybe its somebody on tv or outside talking about someone else I really wasnt sure if they were talking about me so I didnt let it affect me at that time. A couple of weeks later I believed that people were following me, it just didnt seem to be right.
